Letter no 156 Dt 25-10-11

Reports that it is not convenient to take the properties under Govt. management, as (the donor) Parvatammal is unwilling to part with them for the benefit of the Mannulpet Matt.

The properties comprised in the alleged gift are enumerated in the Dy. Commrs letter under reference.

In her petition presented on 12th June (3) and in her Kyphiyat of the same date (4) before the Amildar, Parvatammal says that these properties which belong to her husband's family, are in her enjoyment, that she has nothing else to live upon, that being an ignorant woman, she was advised by some evil persons to gift these properties to the Matt and as a matter of fact, she is unwilling to part with them for the instn and that she will enjoy these properties during her life-time.

(no. 1247) Dt 30 6 11

The Sub Divl officer and the Dy. Commr are not in favor of taking these properties under Govt management.

Sir,

In answer to your letter No 1633 / M 375-09-2 dated 31st December 1909 requesting to report whether the properties gifted by one Parvatamma to the Jangam Mutt in the Bangalore City could conveniently be taken under Government management, I have the honor to state that the gifts, all in Kasba Gubbi, consist of a house bearing Khaneshumarri No. 882 and three lands bearing Survey nos 7 phod 3 (Wet), 85 partly wet and partly bagayat and 26 phod 2 (dry). The Khata only of the house and survey no 7/3 and 85 is in the name of the Swami of the Mutt but the properties are in the of Parvatamma who the Kandugane year after year. Parvatamma has been in the = ment of only one third share in Survey

No. 26/2 The Khata of this land is not in the name of the Swami. From a perusal of the gift deed, it is seen that the Swami of the Mutt is entitled to receive Rs 60/- 2 Parvatamma is unwilling to part with the properties to the Swami or to leave them under Government management. She prefers to enjoy them herself and that the right of disposal should be exclusively hers. In these circumstances, I am of opinion that it is not convenient to take the properties under Government management
